ONE DEAD AND ANOTHER LIKELY TO DIE IN THE HOSPITAL

The Keeper Was Prevented by Fellow Prisoners From Killing the Assassin—An Old Grudge Satisfied—Killed While Frolicking in the Woods—A Race War in Pennsylvania Causes Numerous Deaths.

AUBURN, N. Y., April 17.—John Johnson, who is known as "the blue gum nigger from Clyde," ran amuck in the broom shop of Auburn prison this morning. He was armed with a sharp knife used in cutting broom corn and first attacked Charles Peck, a fellow convict from Westchester County, leaving him dead in his tracks.

He next fatally stabbed Daniel Britten, a convict, and wounded two others before he was shot at by a keeper and rendered powerless. The blade entered Britten's stomach, and he now lies in a precarious condition in the hospital. It is thought he will die.

Johnson stabbed right and left while he was at liberty, and several other convicts suffered severe cuts. The blade of Johnson's knife was broken off during the melee, and cannot be found. He directed a vicious blow at the keeper, who was named Duane, and when Sherrill was arrested on the charge, but there is some doubt as to whether he was the aggressor and particulars cannot be obtained this morning as there is no telegraphic communication with the scene of the difficulty.

KILLED BECAUSE HE LOST.
Kearney, N. J., April 17.—Cuckoo Collins, a sprinter employed in Barnum's circus, was shot and mortally wounded yesterday afternoon at the Kearney Athletic Club grounds by his backer, P. J. Dolan of Newark. Collins had been matched for $100 against a man named Kelly, and when he had won the race, he strolled into the club-house, his backer, white with rage, ran after him and shot him in the back.

When Dolan was arrested he said: "I threatened to kill him if he dumped me. He could have given Green ten yards and beat me."

KILLED AT A PROFIC.

HELENA, Ark., April 17.—News reached here this morning of a triangular fight that occurred yesterday near Monroe Station, some thirty-five miles from here, between S. W. Kiser and two brothers named Kelly.

The fight had gone out of hand, and the Kellys had been killed and the Kisers were badly handled, one of them fatally hurt. Knives were used in the fight, and the Kellys were the aggressors and particulars cannot be obtained this morning as there is no telegraphic communication with the scene of the difficulty.

AGAINST HOME RULE

English Revolutionists Preparing to Join Ulster for War.

COL. C. D. DAWNEY ORGANIZING COMPANIES OF GENTLEMEN VOLUNTEERS.

A Proposed Amendment to the Irish Bill Separating the Unionists' Counties From Ireland—The Ex-Ministers of Service Called Upon to Account for the Contingent Fund Which They Spent.

LONDON, April 17.—Col. C. Dawney, who was a member of the late Parliament from Thirsk and Malton, Yorkshire, but was not a candidate for the present Parliament, is asking an intense interest in the subject of Irish Home rule. The Colonel belongs to the noted Anglo-Irish family of Dawney, being brother of Viscount Dawney, who is also a Member of Parliament. Col. Dawney is 45 years of age, and was for twelve years in the Coldstream Guards. In the late Parliament he was for supporting the National League in Ireland. He now announces the formation of a corps of gentlemen volunteers in Yorkshire, with the intention of joining the Ulster Unionists in armed opposition to Irish home rule. Other news of a military character is that the Ulster Unionists are coming from Scotland. The newspapers of Glasgow report that the Orange leaders in that city are storing rifles and bayonets, with the intention, it is presumed, of aiding the Orangemen of Ulster to battle against Irish home rule.

An important statement is made to-day in regard to the Irish home rule bill. It is the effect that when the bill reaches the committee stage a large section of the Radicals will support a proposal to leave the County of Londonderry, Antrim, Down and Armagh in the Province of Ulster, and to impose rule there being the counties in which the Unionist element is strongest and the antagonism to Irish home rule therefore pronounced. It is considered doubtful that Mr. Gladstone would assent to such a scheme, even if the Irish Nationalists agreed with it, but it is to do with the proportion of the six divisions of Ireland that the Irish Legislature created under it would represent only a portion of the country.

THAT CONTINGENT FUND.

BRITISH MINISTERS WHO USED IT WILL HAVE TO MAKE IT GOOD.

BRUSSELS, April 17.—Trouble has already begun for the ex-regents, Hittich and Markovitch, and their late Minister. The new Government has a small amount of information also made concerning the finances of the country since Alexander acquired power by the coup d'état of last Thursday night, has made a demand that ex-regents and ex-ministers shall reimburse the government for the sum of 2,400,000 dinars or francs appropriated during the regency under the present that had been used in the secret service of the state.

The general acquiescence, if not approval, with which King Alexander's coup d'état is hailed, is already interrupted. The Liberals have gathered courage since Thursday night, and now, apparently, appear to excite the people against the Government. The Liberals have an manifesto in which they describe the new ministry composed of M. DeKitch and his colleagues, appointed by King Alexander since he seized royal authority, as usurpers of political power and as having incited the King to the coup d'état in violation of the constitution, which they repudiate.

The Liberals state that they make their stand upon the rights of the people, which they claim have been outraged and ignored by the alleged usurpation.

AMERICANS IN CHILI PROTEST.

VALPARAISO, Chile, April 17.—Order has been entirely restored at Santiago. A thorough investigation has been made into the explosions in the Casa de Moneda, which caused great excitement owing to the belief that they were caused by dynamite.

El Heraldo says the following cable message has been sent to President Cleveland by American residents of Santiago and Valparaíso. Gen. Egan is serving as Minister in the United States Legation, and is discrediting the country. He evidently desires to provoke a conflict between the United States and Chile.

President Montt will probably accept the resignation of members of the Cabinet on Monday. Isidoro Errazuriz will be asked to re-form the Cabinet.

REVOLUTIONISTS VICTORIOUS IN SOUTH BRAZIL.

MONTEVIDE, Uruguay, April 17.—A correspondent in Artigas telegraphs that Gen. Rivera has dispersed the Castillians in Rio Grande do Sul. Gen. Pinheiro is marching to fortify the Uruguayan frontier force. The force will be sent to engage the revolutionary troops. The revolutionists have destroyed the railroad running between Salto and Rio Grande. Gen. Maura has arrived in Artigas with additional troops.

WEDDING GIFTS FOR THE PRINCELEGE.

VIENNA, April 17.—A committee representing all the conspicuous Jews of Bulgaria have ordered Buda-Pesth an album inlaid with diamonds, rubies and emeralds, which will give to Prince Ferdinand and his bride on their wedding day. The album will cost over $10,000. The couple has sent a diamond ring to the Princess Marie Louise of Parma, the intended bride of Prince Ferdinand.

CHANGED THE BOUNDARIES.

Archbishop Kenrick Reduces Fr. John Dillon's Parish.

The parish lines of the Roman Catholic parishes of the city have been undergoing repeated gerrymandering of late, the result of which has been to displease the pastor whose territory has been given in part to young priests, authorized to organize new parishes. The latest incidents was the establishment of the parish of St. Mark the Apostle with Rev. John Dillon as pastor. Fr. Dillon was formerly the pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church, but was directed to take charge of a parish in the country. He objected and the Archbishop refused his appointment, and, instead, recommended him to found a new parish within the territory bounded by Euston avenue on the south, Union avenue on the west and Euclid avenue on the east. This alignment encroached upon other parishes, and the Visitation, situated at Taylor and Euston avenues, Fr. Dillon knew this and, cleverly enough, bought his church site at Euston and Taylor, and had plans prepared for a temporary edifice and the same approved by the Archbishop before he came to the city. At last, however, it had become a pastor, Fr. Fenlon of the Visitation Church evidently besought the Archbishop to alter the boundaries of his parish, and the reason he received to day from the Archbishop the following letter:

April 17, 1893.

Rev. Edward Fenlon:

Dear Sir:—The present boundary of the Visitation parish will, for the present, be the King's Highway, south of Euston avenue.

Hence it will be seen that Fr. Dillon will not have the territory east of King's Highway and west of Euclid avenue after all. The numerous difficulties created by this change since the first of the year have been a matter of very general comment and the belief is current in some circles that Fr. Dillon will be compelled to leave the old pastor who flew in his face in recent years. Certainly the new parishes have weakened many of the old ones.

REVOLUTION IN BELGIUM.

Striking Laborers and Universal Suffragists Blotting at Antwerp and Hasselt.

BRUSSELS, April 17.—The industrial revolution against the Chamber of Deputies is in full progress.

To-day 1,000 dock laborers in Antwerp joined the movement and much excitement prevails there. The strikers have cut off communication with the garrisons lying to the west. They marched in other various demonstrations and became so threatening that the military had to be called out to preserve order.

No conflict has yet occurred, but the attitude of the strikers is very threatening and trouble is expected at any moment. The streets and open places near the wharves are filled with strikers and hourly their ranks are being swelled with laborers and others. It is hoped that the presence of the military will hold the strikers in check. The strike will perhaps end in a general strike of some of the ocean steamers sailing from Antwerp.

Little is known of the strike, as there have been no disorderly demonstrations. There have been no additions to the strikers' forces to-day. The strikers at times have resorted to the use of dynamite to enforce their demand for universal suffrage. A strike which began in the Petit Wazin's Church exploded this morning with great violence, shattering the stained glass windows of the church and doing other damage. There is, of course no clue to the perpetrators, but the act is generally ascribed to the Socialists, many of whom are among the strikers.

WERE BLOWN UP.

Two Plumbers Meet With a Serious Accident While Hunting a Leak.

Two plumbers working for John Schoen, who has a shop at No. 821 North Eleventh street, applied a most effective but rather damaging method of finding a leak of gas this morning. There had been a smell of escaping gas in the abandoned house immediately north of the London Tavern on North Eleventh street, where the two men went to Schoen's plumber's shop. He sent down Andrew Gillespie aged 16 and Fred Peppenbogen aged 20 telling them to find the leak. They took a pipe and began to search the ceiling looking for the leak. There was a loud noise and a man was heard shouting. The two men were called and the men taken to the City Dispensary, where temporary relief was afforded them. Gillespie was sent to the hospital and Schoen and Peppenbogen to his at 1916 Morgan street. Their injuries are very painful but not serious.

WEATHER BUREAU SCANDAL.

Employees to Be Prosecuted for Theft and Embezzlement.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Secretary Morton this afternoon received the report of Assistant Atty.-Gen. Colby, who conducted the investigation into the charges of illegal and fraudulent disposal of public property in the Weather Bureau.

The final report is as follows: The immediate discharge of the officials and the employees guilty of theft, embezzlement or of the unauthorized sale of Government property and their prosecution thereafter criminally and civilly.

ENGLISH BUSINESS DEPRESSED.

Effect of the Probable Issue of Bonds on the London Market.

LONDON, April 17.—All business is depressed to-day. Consols were bought by persons who are withdrawing their money from the banks. Consols did not rise, because of the large sum in expectation of prompt issue of United States Government bonds to provide gold.

ALL IN RUINS.

The Island of Zante Again Visited by an Earthquake.

Streets of the City Filled With the Wrecks of Buildings.

SEVERAL VILLAGES ON THE ISLE REPORTED WHOLLY DESTROYED.

The Loss of Life Known to Be Great, While the Destruction to Property Cannot Now Be Computed—It Was the Most Severe Shock the Island Has Ever Experienced—Ships Will Be Sent With Shelter and Food for the Survivors.

ATHENS, April 17.—The Island of Zante, one of the principal Ionian Islands, was visited by a most destructive earthquake this morning, resulting in great loss of life and property. The shock appears to have been most violent in the city of Zante, the greater part of which was destroyed. The people are panic-stricken and the authorities helpless. The streets are impassable, being filled with masses of stone and timber, the wreckage of the houses which were overthrown by the earthquake. Thus far the bodies of twenty people killed by falling walls have been removed from the debris, and it is feared that many more dead are still in the ruins. The number of persons injured runs up into the hundreds. Everything is in confusion, and the work of searching for bodies and for the injured cannot be pursued systematically. The greater portion of the inhabitants have fled to the plains back of the city, where they wander about in a distracted manner bewailing the loss of their homes and property. A large number of tents that were taken to Zante to shelter the people who were rendered homeless by the former earthquakes, have again been set up and under them women and children have taken refuge.

The city presents a scene of desolation and is doubtful if ever recovers from the series of misfortunes that have befallen it within the past three months. There is certain to be an enormous amount of suffering and outside aid will be required to prevent sickness and starvation.

The shock occurred at 7:30 o'clock in the morning. Most of the buildings that stood erect after the shocks of February and March were either thrown down or shattered so as to be unfit for occupancy. The church of St. Dionysius and the government offices were thrown down.

Advices from the interior show that the whole island has been devastated. Many villages have been destroyed, and it is thought that the loss of life has been very great, although the full extent of the calamity cannot be estimated at present.

War ships will be dispatched from the Pieraus with clothing, provisions and medicine for the sufferers.

It is pointed out here that the Zante disaster is not the first to have occurred this year, days ago by Prof. Fairb, who predicted the former earthquakes, that disturbances more serious than the recent ones would occur on April 16 or 17. His prediction has proved true, for this morning's shock is the second that has ever visited Zante, which is noted for its earthquakes.

A shock which wrought so much destruction in Zante in January last came at 5:30 on the morning of Feb. 14, and that of course was seemingly the continuation of some 800 shocks of light character felt on the island during the previous half-year. Many lives were lost in that disaster, but the greater part of the city were destroyed. The British ship Camperdown was sent to the island from Malta with tents and provisions for the homeless people. Zante is 100 square miles in area and contains a population of 44,500. The town of Zante has been noted as a third rate port, 160 miles from the nearest and numerous handsome Italian looking buildings and is the seat of a Greek archbishop and a Roman Catholic bishop. The town has a good harbor from a semi-circular bay and is commanded by an old fortress, now falling into ruins.

In the Platia or great square stand the church of St. George, the cathedral, and the Roman Catholic Metropolitan Church of San Marco, which contains several large late Venetian paintings. The town is surrounded by a hill, the slopes of which rise to a height of 1,000 feet. At the top, which is the exact center of the town, is a monastery. Near Hieri on the west side of the island are two springs mentioned by Herodotus, in which pitch bubbles up from the earth. The pitch is collected and used for caking boats. A very violent earthquake visited the island in 1860. In that disaster only a house in the town of Zante was injured, but all of the villages on or bordering on the plain suffered more or less, especially Skuklato, which was reduced to ruins.

David McCormick, the agent here for the B. F. Goodrich Co., was asked about the amount of damage done was estimated at not less than $1,000.

The great earthquake was followed by a lesser one, which became very severe, fifty-five being counted up to Nov. 4. Each of the Ionian Islands seems for the most part to have its own earthquake, independent of the others. Zante is the southernmost of the Ionian group.

CHESTER, April 17.—Chester Swearingen, an aeronaut from Bloomington, while giving an exhibition in Highland Park yesterday afternoon fell forty feet. Swearingen was picked up unconscious and taken to the Bloomington Hospital where an examination showed that his right arm was fractured and he had sustained internal injuries.

A FEMALE ASCENSIONIST'S MISHAP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 17.—While Miss Nellie Hogue, a female aeronaut, was making an ascension from the Cliff House this afternoon her balloon was dashed against the building. Miss Hogue was holding to the carpenter, and was dropped to the ground in a senseless condition. Her recovery is doubtful.

WISCONSIN, April 17.—The boiler of Nellie Bly's passenger steamer, owned by Fisher & Co., exploded to-day, badly injuring a number of persons, one of whom, Geo. Train, proprietor of the Eagle machine shop, had both legs broken. The wrecked vessel sank at once, but no one was drowned.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

Sale of a Franklin Avenue Store—Improving the Thoroughfare.

Thousands of people took advantage of the bright weather yesterday afternoon to visit the suburbs and residence districts in search of home sites. The several electric lines running through the popular suburban residence sections had to double up on their car service to accommodate the crowds, and the section of the line between Waukegan and Ramona the space between cars was reduced from fifteen to eight minutes. As a result of the great interest shown in the sale of lots crowded this morning with people inquiring for property and it is evident that this week's market for suburban property will be very active. The number of lots for sale in the city for each week this spring show a slight falling off as compared with the record for last year.

Local transfers are steady increasing, and the gain will more than balance the fall in which this year's city transfers have sustained.

It is rather remarkable that the big New York appointments were not made before the special session of the Senate adjourned. They are likely to block legislation when Congress meets if there is a faction fight between the President and the two New York Senators.

WHEN Mayor Walbridge was President of the Council he did not vote to confirm all of Noonan's appointees. He voted against the confirmation of "Jim" Butler's appointment as City Attorney, but there were enough votes to confirm it without his vote.

ATTY.-GEN. OLNEY denies that he is thinking of resigning. When a man appointed to the head of the law-enforcing department of the Government still clings to his corporation attorneyship it is evidently proper that he should think of resigning something.

The interpretation which the Republican bosses and organs are forcing with regard to the recent Republican victory in this city is that it was a spoils victory. The first act urged upon Mayor Walbridge is a wholesale revocation of the charters in the interest of Republican office-seekers.

It is not at all surprising that Atty.-Gen. Olney and the politicians do not get on well together. It is hard on self-respecting politicians to deal with a cabinet officer who has so little regard for political ethics as to combine with the duties and pay of Attorney-General the duties and pay of corporation counsel.

NO MAN capable of making $10,000 a year in business or in a profession should be granted a pension because of his inability to make a living at manual labor. If any such pensions are paid they should be abolished, and the rule should be first applied to Democratic politicians if there be any who thus abuse the bounty of a grateful people.

The battle-ships of the nations of the earth are gathering in Hampton Roads to exhibit to each other what they have achieved in the machinery of murder on the ocean. When the show is over these nations should agree never to fire another gun in war. That would be a Columbian triumph which Christopher never dreamed of.

It will not do for ex-President Harrison and Mr. McKinley to look upon Lumberman Alger as a stick. With a little log-rolling the Algerians may do a great deal for their man. There are many Republicans who think that both Harrison and McKinley did a great deal to bring on the disaster of '92, and that other presidential timber will have to be found in '96.

SENATOR HILL is said to be preparing to defend his office brokerage business against the assaults of his great enemy. Is it not strange that the greatest commercial State in the Union is represented in the Senate by two men who seldom or never give a thought to the duties of their position? Petty offices in the interior of New York seem to occupy their time to the exclusion of legislation or public questions.

The charge that the Republican workers in the local elections had copies of the poll-book may not be true, but the fact that in some of the wards where big Republican majorities were polled ballots were cast for nearly all the voters on the lists affords strong suspicion of its accuracy. The percentages of non-voters in some of those wards are unprecedented and indicate that something besides the will of the voters helped the Republican ticket.

The assertion that the sweeping election of Republican candidates was a command to clean out all appointees of the late administration and that the cause of reform demands it is of course merely bald-faced sophistry which is used to veil partisan purposes. So also must be regarded such a silly claim as that all Noonan appointees are necessarily bad, even if it were not stopped by the fact that Mayor Walbridge endorsed the personal fitness of nearly all of them by voting in the Council to confirm their appointment.

The Walbridge administration cannot disregard the charter or bind citizens to its real purposes by stupid trickery of that kind. If removals are made to prove conduct in office affording true and sufficient cause of removal the sincere intent of the administration to observe the charter and give the city a clean government must be admitted. But on the other hand if removals are made on trumped up charges of unfitness or unbecoming conduct the subservience of the administration to spoils bossism will be demonstrated. This course would prove that we had exchanged government by the Democratic "push" for government by the Republican "push."

The attempt to deprive the hotel hackmen of New York of their whisks is plainly an assault upon American liberty. It has all along been supposed that the constitution protects every American citizen in his rights, but it may be found necessary to so protect that particular right as to provide more definitely for our safety. It should, perhaps, be distinctly declared in this amendment that the army and navy of the United States shall protect all citizens in their right to life, liberty and whisks. Without the right to wear whisks life is not worth living, and it should be cut off when they are cut off. It is remarkable that Senator Peffer has not already begun to thunder in the Senate against the whole plot of the un-American party.

The sympathy of the whole country goes down to New Orleans. There isn't a cabbage left in the Crescent City. Nor will the truck farmer allow a cabbage to enter the Jacobites that they turn the Queen's portrait upside down when they stamp their letters, and they are as disloyal as they dare to be in other ways. It is remarkable that the enlightened people of Great Britain tolerate a royal family of any sort, and it may be that by the time this present sovereign passes away they will be in a frame of mind to say to Albert Edward that the differences between royal claimants are best settled by excluding them all and adopting a more advanced system of Government.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

A little band of reformers in Detroit are getting some unpleasant but valuable experience out of their attempt to municipalize the street railways and lighting plant. There is a strong public sentiment behind the movement, and it would probably be easily carried were it not for certain gentle influences brought to bear upon the reforming Mayor's supporters in the Assembly.

The observations of the sun's eclipse appear to have been highly satisfactory. The carbuncle, 89,000 miles in height, must be giving old Sol a good deal of discomfort, and probably does not reflect that it is only the improprieties coming out of his system in the spring.

WILL THE "PUSH" TRIUMPH?

The manner in which Mayor Walbridge and the Republican majority in the City Council meet the pressing demand of public bosses and organs for a clean sweep of Democratic officials in the City Hall will afford convincing evidence of the real meaning of the recent Republican victory. The demand is a fair test of the dominating spirit and purpose of the new Republican administration.

It was customary and in accordance with law for the Mayor to name the heads of departments at the beginning of his term a clean sweep might be accepted as a natural consequence of the election and the only material for judgment upon the purposes of the administration would be found in the character of the appointees.

It is said of course that the President is the "servant of the people," and that he should be accessible to them, but it only requires the application of a little simple arithmetic to show the impossibility of putting this theory in practice. It is the million and half of appointments for the hundred and fifty thousand offices should descend upon the President, in the exercise of this assumed right, the poor man would be either crazy or dead before the first quarter of his term was ended. And what right has one office-seeker that all do not equally possess?

The whole thing is as absurd as it is wrong. The Presidency is a great business office, and it should be conducted upon business methods. The filling of the offices is but a very small part of the President's work. It should not be allowed to consume the larger part of his time. The great body of the 65,000 people who are not concerned about the offices are entitled to some consideration. The mighty affairs of State require attention. Shut the office-seekers out.

All the People Intered.

From the Madison (Wis.) Times.

The New York WORLD is calling loudly for Atty.-Gen. Olney to remember the pledge of the Democracy to the people. The WORLD has an excellent foundation for its demands. Cleveland's administration will be in a large measure judged by its success or failure in enforcing the anti-trust law. If it is discreet it will need its energies in this direction, but it is the one in which the majority, probably nine-tenths, of the people are in accord with the terms of the administration.

The assertion that the sweeping election of Republican candidates was a command to clean out all appointees of the late administration and that the cause of reform demands it is of course merely bald-faced sophistry which is used to veil partisan purposes. Charles Setzer Made a Hasty Compromise Which He Wishes to Undo.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 17.—Chas. Setzer seeks the nullification of a deed to his property which he made to his wife, Luella. About midnight on Dec. 24, 1892, he was arrested with a woman with whom he was entangled and taken to the office of his wife's attorney. Here he was informed of the proceedings concerning the part of his wife. If he signed a deed transferring all his property to her these proceedings, it was said, would not be pushed. The woman arrested at the same time was reported to have had an audience with him in this direction and to have given up her diamonds and all her personal property. He finally signed the deed, and he and his wife were freed. He has now filed divorce proceedings which had been begun; that the deed was signed after midnight of Saturday, Dec. 24, making it illegal.

Since then he has forgiven him and would, but for outside interference, retransferred the property to him.

The wife, however, is a plaus of "self-defense." She says he squandered $30,000 on the woman and that no fraud was used in obtaining the deed, as she had employed the attorney to protect her wife's interests in the lagged instances of his expenditures for some other woman.

BONN, TERR., Mo., April 17.—An accident which fortunately there was more of the ludicrous than the serious occurred at the Delode mine on Flat River last Saturday.

TARS WILL PARADE

Men-of-War's Men Added to New York's April 28 Street Spectacle.

NEW YORK, April 17.—Secretary Herbert of the Navy has instructed Admiral Gherardi to allow the United States men-of-war sailors to participate in the great land parade which President Cleveland will review on April 28. This assures the success of the principal feature of the Columbian celebration. That many of the sailors might desert if given such wholesale opportunities ashore was an objection urged as a sort of reason in naval discipline. The decision was reached, however, as announced officially yesterday through Chairman J. I. Clark of the Committee on Finance.

Five thousand tars in blue will march in the great procession aggregating 15,000 men as now arranged to Fifth avenue by way of Broadway, street, thence to Washington Square and down Broadway to the City Hall.

DYNAMITE IN COAL

A Battery of Boilers Wrecked, but No One Injured.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 17.—An explosion occurred at the Vesuvius Iron Works at Sharpeburg, Saturday night, which wrecked the battery of boilers, but resulted in no other damage. The explosion was caused by a dynamite cartridge accidentally placed on the coal stack. The tars believed that attempt was made to blow up the mill. Since the fall of the late strike colored men have been superseding the whites and the feelings against the negroes is very bitter. There are 100 men, mostly colored, working near the boilers, and the negroes were not killed or injured, is providential.

HELD HIGH REVEL

Wild Scenes Attending the Daly-McManus Prize Fight.

THE HOME JOURNEY WAS A ROUGH AND TUMBLE AFFAIR.

Sports Held High Carnival—Everything Ran Wild—A Tame Battle—Nancy Hanks' Shoes—Track and Stable Gossips—A New Local Century Record—Sporting News.

FRANK VAN NESS' CASE.

The steamer Cherokee that carried a crowd of local sports down the river yesterday to see the Daly-McManus prize fight was the scene of wild and crazy scenes on the return trip. A motley collection of sports such as only a prize fight can draw together were on board and while they restrained themselves to some extent on the trip down they found ample opportunity to satisfy the sporting streak in their nature. It was a good-humored, lively but reckless crowd up to the time of the battle, but on the return trip the animal appetites aroused by the sight of blood and unpeased, was satisfied by drink, and the scene became indescribable. The rival houses of McManus and Daly kept up a hot sectional strife that wound up in a melee before the boat landed, and though stopped temporarily by the boat's crew, was resumed as soon as the crowd landed at the wharf. Here the police took a hand and prevented what might have been a serious outcome. Phelim O'Toole, a brother-in-law of the Dals, was badly beat up, while Larry Battie, their bartender, will wear his head in a sling for several days to come.

Everything ran wild open on the trip downstream. The managers had disposed of the "privileges" at a high figure and the shell game, punch-and-judy and rough-and-tumble people in big barrels. Crap games were in progress all over the decks. Enough funny incidents occurred to fill a volume.

The funniest of all, perhaps, and the most relished was when a Neuben named "Green" assessed the fighters $15 for the use of his grounds, where the ring was pitched, and then went against the two fighters and lost all. He then lay another assessment on the fighters, $10, but the crowd threatened to throw him in the river. A well-known local sport, who vacillated between social and sportsman, was the chief man to suffer. Many of the tars can show some queer careers on the trotting track.

TRADE TALK.

The Connecticut Legislator has passed a bill prohibiting all forms of pool seating or betting on horse races.

The judges at Memphis are Col. Lewis Clark, Mr. H. Williamson and President S. R. Montgomery.

Eugene Leigh has changed the name of his 3-year-old imported to colt by Florence out of Indiana from "Goliath" to "Hercules."

Quartermaster, a 1,000 to 1 chance in the great American Derby, won by a nose for $10,000 in San Francisco recently in a 1-mile race.

Another horse, a 100 to 1 chance, Dick Dwyer, the East Louis gelding, suited the horses so well that they gave him a costly timing watch, says a source.

The Sixten anti-pool bill, which prohibits betting on horse racing except on the race track, has passed the Senate.

The following is a list of the men who were invited to go against the shell game, but Billy McManus gave him a line and the tars were not invited.

Just how a serious outcome was averted is not known, but the crowd threatened to throw the fighters in the river.
